

Storytelling & Film Intensive
Creative Storytelling Lab

Create an original, portfolio-ready project through storytelling and film

Grades 8–12 · Seoul · Summer 2026

About

Creative Storytelling Lab is a two-week intensive where students develop an original story and produce a completed short film. The program is modeled on a university-level curriculum, combining storytelling, production, and critique in a structured, collaborative environment. Students leave with a portfolio-ready project and a deeper understanding of the creative process.

What Makes This Different

- Led by working filmmakers and experienced educators with backgrounds in university-level teaching
- Built on a university-level curriculum, informed by experience advising U.S. programs
- Structured as Lecture · Lab · Workshop, combining concept, application, and critique

What Students Leave With

- Original short screenplay
- Completed short film (team-based)
- Collaborative production experience
- Final showcase presentation

Program Structure

The program follows a structured format modeled on U.S. university classrooms:

Lecture · Lab · Workshop

Concepts are introduced, applied, and refined through a continuous cycle of practice and critique.

Beyond producing a final project, students learn how to think, develop, and articulate ideas within a rigorous creative process.
